Regional Business News

A brief round-up of all the most important stories of business information for the South Wales and South West England regions

Job Losses in the region

Devon County Council plans to reduce management, administration and backroom staff to save more than £10 million. The authority has said that there may be compulsory redundancies as it needs to save a further £40 million in the next financial year. It will start a series of public consultation meetings into the savings plans in October. The council is Devon's biggest employer. www.devonjobs.gov.uk

Appleby Westward A RETAIL distribution centre in Saltash has made eight redundancies following a "review of its structure" and may also shed 24 jobs at a store in Liskeard. Appleby Westward is the regional distribution centre for SPAR shops in the South West, employing 173 people in Saltash. www.swspar.com

Infoteam Up to 40 jobs are at risk in Cornwall, with a Westcountry group which repairs Sony PlayStation game consoles. St Columb Major based Infoteam is currently in consultation with workers over the loss up between 30 and 40 roles at its Cornwall facilities, as a result of a reduction in the number of PlayStation console sales since March. Infoteam, which currently employs around 350 staff across four sites in the Westcountry. www.infoteamgroup.com

Hookways Limited - In Liquidation - £3.5m Debt Hookways Ltd, which ceased trading earlier in August 2011 with the loss of around 70 jobs, was placed into liquidation at a creditor's meeting on 23 August 2011.

Merger Talks Underway - Significant Business Growth Conka Design Ltd is in merger talks with the company with which it developed the Spiderpodium, a smartphone accessory designed to hold mobile phones and cameras steady. The product achieved worldwide success after appearing on 'The Apprentice' television show. The merger has the potential to increase Conka Design's turnover to £4m in 2011, rather than the £1m expected. Conka Design, which has a design office in Cardiff and a manufacturing plant in Exeter, designed the Spiderpodium device. It is now sold in 42 countries through major retailers such as Jessops and Halfords.

Aldi Stores Limited - 18 New Jobs - New Store September 2011 – Swindon. A new Aldi supermarket has opened at Drove Road, Swindon creating 18 new jobs for residents in the area. The store officially opened for business on 1st September, 2011 after long delays.

Integrated Pathology Partnerships Ltd (iPP) has been selected by Taunton and Somerset NHS Foundation Trust and Yeovil District Hospital NHS Foundation Trust as the preferred bidder to help deliver improved pathology services across the county. A multi-million state-of-the-art laboratory is to be built in Taunton, Somerset, to accommodate a new pathology service.

MPCT, which runs Traineeship programmes including The Military Preparation College, Sports Academy and Prince's Trust for young people throughout England and Wales has taken both floors at Tenby House in Cardiff Gate Business Park to accommodate its expanding business. The extra 4,000 square feet will house its new head office as well as providing a training base for new staff, following the doubling of its government-funded contract in Wales.

The acquisition has freed up space at its Dumballs Road premises, where it has now been able to introduce three new courses and 250 additional learners. This expansion has created 36 new training jobs throughout the organisation.
