

Employment Bulletin

North East/Yorkshire June 2016

On behalf of the Career Transition Partnership (CTP), welcome to the North East and Yorkshire Employment Bulletin, which will provide you with the latest jobs and business news from across the region and highlights a selection of the latest regional vacancies on our job site, RightJob.

In addition to this bulletin, there are plenty of other resources available to assist you in your job search: the monthly Focus e-newsletter provides job-finding, resettlement and training news via email, our bespoke Industry Sector Guides are regularly updated with the latest industry news, and the CTP website is full of useful tips, advice and dedicated employer microsites, where you will find information from a range of companies with ongoing opportunities for ex-military personnel.

Regional Overview

The North East/Yorkshire region is a huge geographical area covering a number of counties and large cities. Leeds is now the fastest growing city in the UK, and the largest Centre outside London for financial and business services with First Direct, Direct Line Group and Yorkshire Bank to name but a few. Construction in Leeds is powering on as new office space and residential developments hit a nine year high. York is no longer relying upon its railway and confectionery-manufacturing but is now developing in to an international destination and hub for science and technology. The North East is no longer dominated by collieries, and pit heaps have been reclaimed and naturalised in to landscapes to pave the way for companies such as Nissan, Arriva and Hitachi Rail not to forget the presence of business parks solely to house large call centres.

The area as a whole has some of the biggest employers including Capita, Arriva, Network Rail, Northern Rail and Nissan. In 2015, employment grew faster in the North than the South and by the end of 2015, the employment rate in the North was at its highest on record, at 72.2% [HM Treasury Budget 2016]

Each of these areas has its own varying set of employment factors which you need to take into account when job searching. Therefore, it is beneficial for you to keep up-to-date with local business news and sign up with local job search websites to get relevant, up-to-date information to aid you in your search for employment.

New online mentoring from the Royal British Legion

The Royal British Legion's online pilot mentoring programme offers an easy way for Service leavers to connect with mentors in the property and construction industry for career planning support, regardless of location.

Over 3 million people in the UK are employed in property and construction, from estate agents to property managers, architects and planners to consultants and project managers, to engineers and the construction trades, and the industry offers a wide number of opportunities for Service leavers to use their skills.

Service leavers wishing to sign up to the programme, select a mentor from those best matched to their profile and requirements. They are then encouraged to plan the information they want to gather and make regular contact with their mentor over an agreed period using email, phone, Skype, social media or face-to-face communications to ask and answer questions and share career advice.
