

Regional Employment Bulletin

South West & South Wales August 2016

On behalf of the Career Transition Partnership (CTP), welcome to the South West & South Wales Employment Bulletin. It will provide you with the latest jobs and business news from across the region and highlights a selection of the latest regional vacancies on our job site, RightJob.

In addition to this bulletin, there are plenty of other resources available to assist you in your job search: the monthly Focus e-newsletter provides job-finding, resettlement and training news via email, our bespoke Industry Sector Guides are regularly updated with the latest industry news, and the CTP website is full of useful tips, advice and dedicated employer microsites, where you will find information from a range of companies with ongoing opportunities for ex-military personnel.

Regional Overview

This region covers the geographical area that includes; Cornwall, Devon, Dorset, Somerset, Wiltshire, Hampshire (West), Gloucestershire, Herefordshire and South Wales.

The region has the highest percentage of rural land of any English region, three quarters of the total land area being agricultural. The largest city is Bristol. Other major urban centres include Plymouth, Swindon, Gloucester, Exeter, Bath, and the South East Dorset conurbation of Bournemouth, Poole and Christchurch. The most economically productive areas are Bristol, the M4 corridor and South East Dorset which are all areas with the best links to London.

South Wales is made up of Pembrokeshire, Carmarthenshire, Swansea and Neath Port Talbot, Bridgend, Rhondda Cynon Taf, Merthyr Tydfil, Caerphilly, Blaenau Gwent, Torfaen, Vale of Glamorgan, Monmouthshire, Newport and Cardiff.

The areas of highest job density are centred around Cardiff, and along the M4 motorway that runs through Newport, Cardiff and on to Swansea.

The major urban areas are Cardiff, Swansea and Newport. Cardiff and the wider Vale of Glamorgan are the significant economic areas in South East Wales. Cardiff city relies principally on the retail, finance, media and tourism sectors and has experienced major regeneration particularly in the city centre and around Cardiff Bay.

Each of these areas has its own varying set of employment factors which you need to take into account when job searching. Therefore, it is beneficial for you to keep up-to-date with local business news and sign up with local job search websites to get relevant, up-to-date information to aid you in your search for employment.

Regional Job Market News

Expansions | New businesses | Market growth | Upcoming opportunities | Closures | Risks

Robots are taking over, but that could mean MORE jobs for Plymouth

The rise of the robots is here – and it could mean MORE jobs, not fewer, for Plymouth. Top writer and lecturer Peter Marsh said rather than robotics being a direct threat to workers' employment, increased use of robots in factories could lead to manufacturing returning to the UK from cheap-labour economies, hauling jobs with it. He said robots could also hike productivity and make UK firms more competitive, also boosting employment.

Expansion for Derriford Hospital: 400 homes and new shops in major plan for north of Plymouth

Plans are being worked on which could see a huge redevelopment of land next to Derriford Hospital to create a health care quarter for the city. The vision is for a "comprehensive regeneration" providing a mixed use scheme which is "care led". This would include a large "care square" (below) of new buildings for the hospital on the North West Quadrant site.

Will job creation decline after Brexit vote?

The Devon economy slowed in the three months before the EU referendum – and there are now questions over whether job creation will go into a downward spiral. Devon Chamber of Commerce's Quarterly Economic Survey for Quarter 2 2016 indicated that the county's businesses experienced a slowdown of growth before the Brexit result. Sales and orders fell and recruitment intentions were considerably lessened, the survey found. Read more

Cornwall Airport Newquay sees huge growth in passenger numbers

Cornwall Airport Newquay, the fastest growing airport in the UK, has seen its passenger numbers rise by 51% in June compared to the same period last year. After several years with passenger numbers in decline, fortunes are on the up, with the latest figures showing that 42,343 passengers used the airport last month. Bosses say it is the largest month on month growth the airport has experienced in recent times. Read more
