

Regional Employment Bulletin

London & South East September 2016

On behalf of the Career Transition Partnership (CTP), welcome to the London & South East Employment Bulletin. It will provide you with the latest jobs and business news from across the region and highlights a selection of the latest regional vacancies on our job site, RightJob.

In addition to this bulletin, there are plenty of other resources available to assist you in your job search: the monthly Focus e-newsletter provides job-finding, resettlement and training news via email, our bespoke Industry Sector Guides are regularly updated with the latest industry news, and the CTP website is full of useful tips, advice and dedicated employer microsites, where you will find information from a range of companies with ongoing opportunities for ex-military personnel.

Regional Overview

The London & South East region is a huge geographical area covering a number of counties and large cities such as Portsmouth, London, Reading, Brighton, Oxford, Kent, Southampton, Chichester and Guildford to name but a few. Each of these areas has its own different set of employment factors, so it is important that you sign up with local job searching websites to get as much relevant, up-to-date information as possible, to aid you in your search for employment.

Sainsbury's creates 900 jobs

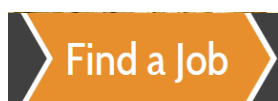

UK supermarket Sainsbury's is to create 900 jobs at a new online fulfilment centre in Bromley-by-Bow, East London. The 185,000 sq ft centre, due to open this autumn, forms part of the retailer's strategy to enable its customers to shop whenever and wherever they want, and will cater for growing demand in London for Sainsbury's online groceries service.

In a statement, Sainsbury's said they expect the service to be rolled out to 30 stores by Christmas. The statement adds recruitment has just begun for the first 470 jobs and the retailer plans to recruit another 430 colleagues by 2020. Roles include mixture of drivers, order pickers, product replenishers and managers.

The three stores taking part in the trial are Sainsbury's Streatham Common, Richmond and Brookwood in Surrey

Employers prefer to 'wait and see' before hiring, says JobsOutlook

Two-thirds of employers surveyed in the latest Recruitment & Employment Confederation's JobsOutlook survey were found to be taking a 'wait-and-see' attitude to hiring in the lead up to the UK referendum on its membership of the European Union.

The data, covering June and based on a survey of 600 employers, found two in three organisations adopting what could be a 'wait-and-see' attitude to hiring, with one in five planning to hire but three times as many intending to keep their permanent employee headcount static over the next three months.

Eight in 10 UK businesses report operating with either 'little' or 'no' capacity to take on more work without creating more jobs but employers expect difficulties finding appropriately skilled candidates for jobs in engineering, construction, hospitality, and health and social care.

£9.7 million construction contract awarded for Baker Barracks, Thorney Island

The contract, which will cover the building of a new training centre, armoury and office extensions at the West Sussex site, will see the latest construction work commence in October 2016.

These works are part of a wider upgrade of Baker Barracks with enabling works, a new perimeter fence and additional office space now complete and the delivery of new Single Living Accommodation due to be completed in September 2016, bringing the overall investment in the site to circa £27 million.

The infrastructure investment is part of the Army Basing Programme (ABP) which is providing the facilities the British Army needs to live, work and train in the UK as it returns from Germany, rebases across the UK and restructures to its future Army 2020 formations.

Virtual Recruitment

According to consultancy and professional services firm Deloitte Global, virtual reality will have its first $1bn (£752.4m) year in 2016, with around $700m in hardware sales and the rest from content. VR allows users to immerse themselves in a virtual environment and has a number of potential applications for recruitment even though it is still early days in its development. Capita and JWT worked with VR specialist Visualise to use the technology in a recruitment campaign for the British Army and, following this, applications rose 65% and 41% in February and March, respectively, compared to the same period last year. "It's stand-out, innovative and has so much potential to inspire candidates," says Will McMaster, head of production at Visualise. So what do recruiters need to know?
