About the Career Transition Partnership

The CTP is the MoD's official provider of Armed Forces resettlement, and is a partnering agreement between the Ministry of Defence and Right Management, who are part of the Manpower Group.

We provide comprehensive resettlement services to all eligible leavers of the Armed Forces, from creating CVs and learning how to transfer military experience to civilian speak, to completing vocational training courses and finally approaching the job market with confidence.

Due to our partnership with the MoD, we are government funded and this allows us to provide you with our recruitment services and the expertise we offer at no cost to you.

Leaving the Armed Forces having served less than four years or via compulsory discharge?

Early Service Leavers Resettlement Programme

Giving you the tools to help you make your own positive decisions about your next steps and future plans

Welcome to CTP Future Horizons

CTP Future Horizons is the resettlement provision for Early Service Leavers (ESLs) across all three services, regardless of how long you have served or the reasons you have for leaving.

The programme will be offered to you as part of your discharge process.

How do I access the CTP Future Horizons Programme?

Are you leaving the service either via compulsory discharge, or before you have served 4 years?

You should be informed about the programme by your Unit Briefing Officer, as part of the discharge process and given the opportunity to register for the programme via JPA

As soon as you are discharged, you will have either a face to face meeting with a member of the CTP Future Horizons team (if you are based close to one of our hubs in Catterick, Pirbright and Plymouth), or a telephone meeting.

Here, we will discuss how we can best support you. Contact details for our hubs are on the back page of this leaflet.

Gain access to a range of support tools, our ex-military jobs board and an Employment Advisor if required.

College? Work? Apprenticeships?
None of the above? We can help you!

What can the CTP Future Horizons Programme do for me?

- ◆ Help with your CV
- ◆ Careers guidance
- ◆ Advice on college courses, training and apprenticeships
- ◆ Information on local job opportunities
- ◆ Access to CTP RightJob ex-military job board
- ◆ Transition support

Why should I bother?

Finding employment, education and training opportunities in civilian life is not always as easy as you may think. We'll help you take the next steps towards the career path you want to follow post-discharge.

Support is for life and is completely free. The more people supporting you to find suitable opportunities for the future, the more chances you have in getting into the type of employment or training you are looking for.

Employment Opportunities

RightJob is our online job finding service that lists thousands of live vacancies and opportunities for Service leavers, with new ones added every day. We work with hundreds of employers who recognise the talent pool leaving the Armed Forces and the experience and strong working ethos Service leavers bring with them after a military career.

Access to RightJob is through myPlan on the CTP website. You will be provided with your login details by your Employment Advisor upon registration with the programme.

Support for technical issues with RightJob is provided by our Central Support Team:

Tel: 0121 236 0058

Email: RightJobSupport@ctp.org.uk

Our advisors will also advise you on the best methods and locations to search for the opportunities you want. Some useful links can be found on the back page of this leaflet.
