

Employment Bulletin

Scotland February 2020

On behalf of the Career Transition Partnership (CTP), welcome to the Scotland Employment Bulletin, which will provide you with the latest jobs and business news from across the region and highlights a selection of the latest regional vacancies on our job site, RightJob.

In addition to this bulletin, there are plenty of other resources available to assist you in your job search: the monthly Focus e-newsletter provides job-finding, resettlement and training news via email, our bespoke Industry Sector Guides are regularly updated with the latest industry news, and the CTP website is full of useful tips, advice and dedicated employer microsites, where you will find information from a range of companies with ongoing opportunities for ex-military personnel.

Regional Overview

Scotland covers a large and diverse geographical area with the majority of the population and the jobs being across the Central Belt which includes the major cities of Edinburgh and Glasgow. Other population hot spots include the cities of Dundee, Inverness and Aberdeen.

Each of these areas has its own varying set of employment factors which you need to take into account when job searching. Therefore, it is beneficial for you to keep up-to-date with local business news and sign up with local job search websites to get relevant, up-to-date information to aid you in your search for employment.

TSB

TSB, the banking giant recovering from a major IT meltdown two years ago, is creating 100 jobs in Edinburgh as it rolls out a new technology hub in the city. The creation of the centre, which is based in the newly refitted Scottish TSB headquarters on the capital's George Street, forms part of a £120 million digital investment by the lender.

Funding boost secures new multi-million-pound food and drink centre for North-East

A £20 million-plus food and drink development "hub" for the north-east will open in 2022 after a £10m commitment of Scottish and UK Government cash, it has been announced. Economic development body Opportunity North East (One) said the funding, secured through the Aberdeen City Region Deal, was the single largest public sector investment in the food and drink industry in Scotland.

Aldi

Aldi has revealed plans to create almost 150 jobs in West Lothian. The German supermarket chain is to open its new £25 million storage and chill unit in Bathgate by the end of April and the new facility will create 120 jobs over a five year period. Aldi also announced plans to open a new store on Houstoun Road in Livingston at some point over the next twelve months creating another 20 new jobs. Read more.

Defence Transition Service launches in Scotland

Ministry of Defence

The MOD has now launched its Defence Transition Service (DTS) here, in Scotland. Dedicated MOD staff across the country will help service leavers who may struggle as they transition into civilian life. More responsibility will also be placed on commanders to identify those who are likely to face the greatest challenges in making a successful transition. These issues can include housing, debt management and caring responsibilities. To find out more about the Defence Transition Service, please click here.
