

Employment Bulletin

Scotland August 2020

On behalf of the Career Transition Partnership (CTP), welcome to the Scotland Employment Bulletin, which will provide you with the latest jobs and business news from across the region and highlights a selection of the latest regional vacancies on our job site, RightJob.

In addition to this bulletin, there are plenty of other resources available to assist you in your job search: the monthly Focus e-newsletter provides job-finding, resettlement and training news via email, our bespoke Industry Sector Guides are regularly updated with the latest industry news, and the CTP website is full of useful tips, advice and dedicated employer microsites, where you will find information from a range of companies with ongoing opportunities for ex-military personnel.

Please Note: We make every effort to ensure that resources, information, and vacancies are accurate and up to date. However, as information is subject to change you are advised to check material facts and dates. Any website links are used to provide further information and are not intended to signify that we endorse such websites and/or their content.

Regional Overview

Scotland covers a large and diverse geographical area with the majority of the population and the jobs being across the Central Belt which includes the major cities of Edinburgh and Glasgow. Other population hot spots include the cities of Dundee, Inverness and Aberdeen.

Each of these areas has its own varying set of employment factors which you need to take into account when job searching. Therefore, it is beneficial for you to keep up-to-date with local business news and sign up with local job search websites to get relevant, up-to-date information to aid you in your search for employment.

Skyrora

Edinburgh space rocket company Skyrora is to open a new engine test complex in Fife. Skyrora currently has its HQ in the capital and a production facility at Loanhead, Midlothian. The site will allow Skyrora to carry out vital engine tests that will provide the technical and performance data that will eventually allow the company to launch its first rocket into space - supporting Scotland's drive to be a space hub. Lidl

LIDL is set to open four new supermarkets in Scotland this year - creating 220 new jobs. The supermarket giant has earmarked new sites in Glasgow, including Finnieston, and Rosyth, Fife. Lidl chiefs have also vowed to plough cash into its existing 103 stores across the country including Kirkwall, Kelso and Kilsyth. Showcasing its commitment to further long term expansion in Scotland, the retailer recently revealed a list of 28 'sites of interest' across the country. Read more.

Scottish Ambulance Service

Around 500 new jobs will be created in the Scottish Ambulance Service (SAS) when it takes charge of mobile Covid-19 testing units. Currently, the Armed Forces run these testing centres – but responsibility for them will transfer to the ambulance service from the start of September. With the number of mobile testing units also due to be expanded from 13 to 18 by July 15, recruitment for new staff is now underway – with the jobs to remain in place for as long as the service is needed. Trustpilot

Trustpilot has announced the creation of a new global research and development and innovation hub in Edinburgh. The move to Scotland will allow the review platform develop "new, world-leading technology" that it said proactively tackles behaviour that threatens trust online. The hub is being supported through a £1.8 million R&D grant from Scottish Enterprise, bringing new investment into Scotland's leading digital and technology sector and aims to initially create 30 new advanced data science jobs and new local partnerships in Edinburgh over the next three years. ODx

A Scottish medical technology company is to take on 60 new staff as part of an expansion move. The new roles at ODx will be based in Inverness and include assembly technicians, lab, office and clinical staff. The technology is currently going through clinical studies and it is claimed will aid patients by getting faster diagnosis and treatment, and will also save NHS costs on hospital admissions, lab time and reducing antibiotic prescriptions. It means ODx can provide answers for treatment options within an hour, instead of the current time of two to three days. Read more.

Swissport

Jobs at Scottish airports are under threat after a ground-handling firm announced huge cuts. Swissport, which has bases at Glasgow, Edinburgh, Inverness and Aberdeen airports, told staff on Wednesday that up to 4556 jobs could be cut. The number represents more than half its UK workforce and Unite Scotland fear the decision puts more than 800 Scottish roles at risk. Although the final details on the job losses affecting each airport have not been released, Unite say that up to 70 jobs could be lost in Aberdeen, up to 300 jobs at Edinburgh and 440 at Glasgow Airport.
