

London and South East Region January 2021

On behalf of the Career Transition Partnership (CTP), welcome to the London and South East Employment Bulletin, which will provide you with the latest jobs and business news from across the region and highlights a selection of the latest regional vacancies on our job site, RightJob.

In addition to this bulletin, there are plenty of other resources available to assist you in your job search: the monthly Focus e-newsletter provides job-finding, resettlement and training news via email, our bespoke Industry Sector Guides are regularly updated with the latest industry news, and the CTP website is full of useful tips, advice and dedicated employer microsites, where you will find information from a range of companies with ongoing opportunities for ex-military personnel.

*Please Note: We make every effort to ensure that resources, information, and vacancies, are accurate and up to date. However, as information is subject to change you are advised to check material facts and dates. Any website links are used to provide further information and are not intended to signify that we endorse such websites and/or their content.

Regional Overview

London & South East is a large region, comprising of both rural and densely populated areas spanning London and the home-counties (Berkshire, Buckinghamshire, Essex, Hertfordshire, Kent, Surrey, and Sussex) and into bordering Bournemouth (Dorset) and Salisbury (Wiltshire). Each area has differing geographical or industry factors that influence employment. List your location preferences, on your Right Job and LinkedIn profiles and sign-up to job-search websites indicating your preferred postcodes. This will ensure you are visible to recruiters and employers, and able to access as many opportunities as possible.

More than 160 train driver jobs up for grabs, starting salary £31,000

Govia Thameslink Railway (GTR) is hiring across its portfolio of brands including Thameslink, Southern, Great Northern and Gatwick Express. The jobs are open to anyone above the age of 21 and have a starting salary of £31,000. Successful candidates will be put on to the 18-month trainee driver programme and will be based at GTR's depots across the 800-mile network in central, south and south east England. Locations include Barnham and Brighton, to London Bridge, Welwyn and Hornsey. Southern Rail operates trains from Portsmouth to London via Chichester. Read more

Openreach creating jobs with rollout of full fibre broadband

 Openreach is to create 69 jobs in Hampshire and 341 in the South East next year as it improves its networks and connects people to ultra-fast 'full fibre' broadband.
The BT-owned infrastructure company says its expansion will create more than 2,500 full time jobs in its own business and an estimated 2,800 in its supply chain. It has also made a commitment to convert all its 27,000 vehicles, the second largest commercial fleet in the UK, to electric by 2030. Openreach aims for its full fibre programme to reach 20million homes and businesses by the mid to late 2020s if the right investment conditions exist. Read more

London Jobs paying over 40K continue to rise despite lockdown and Brexit

Despite London being placed into a second national lockdown last month, the number of professional vacancies in London paying over £40k continued to increase, with roles up 5.2% month-on-month. That's according to new research from the Association of Professional Staffing Companies (APSCo), the trade association for the recruitment sector. Read more

Hundreds of new jobs at Dunsbury Park development

The diggers have moved in to start work on a new Portsmouth City Council construction project that will create hundreds of new local engineering and manufacturing jobs. The new 120,000 sq ft specialist facility – which the council is building at its award-winning business park Dunsbury Park – will also generate millions of pounds of rental income for vital council services and will be a major part of the post-Covid-19 recovery. Work has started on the engineering and manufacturing unit which the council is building at its 45 acre site, next to junction 3 of the A3(M). Read more
