Who is the course for?

PRINCE2 is aimed at existing and aspiring project managers. It is suitable for project and team managers, project support teams and managers from other disciplines wishing to develop and demonstrate an understanding of PRINCE 2 and its application.

Programme Structure

The aim of both the Foundation and Practitioner elements of the programme is to introduce students to the characteristics and contexts of a project, and the principles, themes and processes of the PRINCE2 methodology. The Practitioner element allows students to then apply and tailor the methodology to a project situation.

Exams take place on Day 2 (Foundation) and Day 5 (Practitioner) of the course. (this differs for Virtual courses where individuals book their own exam date)

PRINCE2 Overview

Delegates are introduced to the world of projects and project management and to the overall structure of the PRINCE2 method.
